Council To Ask Ito About Rally Post Appointee

In conjunction with the proposed by-law that excludes students on probation from office, the Student Council today will question Shunji Ito, Rally Committee chairman, on the appointment of an assistant yell leader who is on probation.

ASB President John Aitken said yesterday that Lonnie Manning was appointed assistant yell leader over the council's recommendation that no student on probation be appointed to office.

Dr. Edward W. Clements, adviser to the Student Council, told reporters that the Rally Committee had appealed Manning's case to the Personnel Deans, but they had recommended the committee follow the council's ruling.

Other business at today's council meeting will be the drafting of a letter to Assemblyman Clark Bradley, opposing the recent proposal for increased student fees in state colleges.

Division Heads Make Plans For 'Big Switch'

Division chairmen across the campus this week are conferring with Dean of Instruction Fred F. Harclerod and Curriculum Evaluator Charles R. Purdy in an effort to list the problems confronting them in making the changeover from the quarter to the semester system.

According to Dean Harclerod, the purpose of the meetings is to organize the problems and make recommendations to the President's Council on standards in making the curriculum changes.

the Spartans their eighth consecutive defeat, tying a school record. Bronco Ken Sears is the master of the casaba as SC won, 76-47. —photo by Steinheimer.

"None of the divisions can begin to change their curricula until they know what is going to happen to the General Education courses," Dean Harclerod said yesterday.

Some of the main problems listed by Division chairmen were: How shall they determine unit value? Shall they add to courses and subtract from others? Or shall they combine two related classes?

"Undoubtedly it will be necessary to cut the total number of courses," the Dean said, "and we will probably be forced to drop several from the catalog."

He added that they would have to be flexible when considering what students should do when they have already finished "A" and "B" course sequences. Special problem classes to fill in the gaps caused by the semester change are a possible solution, the Dean said.

Student Court Says Stones 'Not Guilty'

The Student Court handed down a verdict of "not guilty" yesterday at the trial of Al Stones who was charged with two violations of the election code.

In declaring the decision, Stan Croonquist, chief justice, said, "The Student Court finds you not guilty on the grounds of insufficient evidence submitted by the Prosecution, but the Court recommends that the facts stated in the Constitution and By-Laws concerning the elections should not be interpreted narrowly in the future."

The controversy concerned whether or not the 8 by 11 inch handbills posted by Stones were to be considered campaign posters. The court elected not to declare them so in this case.

Bill Tarr was prosecuting attorney.

Applications Must Be Filed Today

Today at 4 p.m. is the deadline for filing applications for election petitions in the ASB office in the Student Union, according to Stan Croonquist, chief justice of Student Court.

As yet no applications have been taken out for the Junior class presidency, he said. A number of posts have only one applicant.

These are: Senior Student Council representative, Junior secretary and treasurer, Junior representative, and Sophomore vice president, secretary and treasurer.

If more students do not take out applications, these offices will be elected on a white ballot, said Croonquist, "and we're trying to keep away from that."

Sophs Sponsor Talent Show; Will Feature Faculty in Cast

SJS Faculty talent will be featured in the Sophomore-sponsored Faculty Show April 23 in Morris Dailey auditorium, according to Don Fletcher, soph president.

Hermie Jimenez is chairman of the show, money from which will go to World University Service, an organization that helps foreign universities and students.

"I know everyone will support the show. The entertainment will be great and the students will be supporting a worthy cause," Fletcher said.

The show will be composed entirely of acts performed by talented faculty members, according to Fletcher, but will be sponsored and directed by the Sophomore class.

Sophomores are also in the final planning stages of the Soph-Doll contest, sponsored by the University of California Sophomore class. Don Abinante is chairman of the SJS contest.

Frosh President Says 'No Clues Yet'

"No clues yet" as to the whereabouts of the Mixer plaque, Frosh class President Bob Weiss commented yesterday. The plaque apparently has been missing since the Winter quarter of last year.

According to Weiss, however, it was "seen" and confiscated from a student's room just before the last mixer. "It was known to be in safe keeping but for some reason or another it didn't show up at the mixer," he added.

"The awarding of the plaque is a tradition that goes back many years," said Rocci Pisano, adviser for the freshman class. "The sophomores are considered the custodians, he added, since they sponsor the first mixer of the year. Only at last winter's mixer when the Sophs faked the plaque was the real plaque discovered missing."

"The Freshmen went along with the idea," Pisano continued, "that it would be returned 'only to win a second time and the Sophs failed to come through."

Don Fletcher, Sophomore president, presented the Frosh class with a "token" at the last mixer, "only it was a brass plate from a fraternity door that had to be returned," Natalie Fancher said.

phomore council decided that only one judging would be held to elect the SJS Soph Doll. She will compete with other girls from Northern California colleges to select the all-college Soph Doll, March 5 at Berkeley, said Fletcher.

The council also decided that all fraternities, sororities and major living groups are eligible to sponsor a contestant in the contest. There will be no outside sponsorship and no cheese cake will be allowed, according to rules established by Dean of Women Helen Dimmick.

Camp Deadline

Today at 5 p.m. is the deadline for applications for Freshman Camp counselors, Sam Yates, camp director, has announced.

Applications are open to the general student body.

Bruce Bliven To Talk Today In Concert Hall

Bruce Bliven, chairman of the editorial board of The New Republic, is to speak today at 11:30 a.m. in the Concert hall of the Music building on "Is the Press Doing Its Job?"

Bliven will discuss the importance of the press, its weaknesses and merits, its tendency toward syndication and standardization, its tendency toward monopoly and conservatism, pressures on the publisher and the influence of schools of journalism upon the press.

Bliven, who is the author of numerous books and articles, has had a long and active career in journalism since he was graduated from Stanford University in 1911. He was successively chief editorial writer, managing editor and associate editor of the New York Globe.

Bliven has made numerous lecture tours across the United States. He has been on the faculties of the University of Southern California and New York University.

Senior Committee Meets To Evaluate June Activities

Proposals for a Mt. Hamilton Day, a Senior Overnight, and a Campus Day are scheduled to come up for discussion soon when the Senior Activities Week Evaluation committee meets to consider changes and additions to the past events.

President Bill Hushaw included these ideas Monday afternoon among a list of several possible changes and additions to the annual June whirl of senior activities for which he says $17,000 is available.

The Mt. Hamilton Day would include a picnic and tour of the observatory. The Campus Day would be planned as a parents' visiting day.

Registration Opens Soon For JC Interim Session

Registration for the special interim session for junior college transfers being held by the college this year will be Friday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Classes will begin Monday, Feb. 8.

Courses which will be given during the session are PE 66, technique of teaching games, one unit; Geography 1A, principles of human geography, three units; English 78, introduction to Shakespeare, three units; and PE 33, recreational games, one-half unit.

A grade average of "C" or better on all former college work is a requirement for admission to the special session. Junior college transfers must have completed either of the following:

1. One year of college work, consisting of at least 24 units with a "C" average, or

2. If less than one year has been completed, must have earned at least five units in high school grades ten, eleven and twelve with "A" or "B" grades, plus a "C" average in junior college work.

Fees for the session are $5 for three units or less, $10 for three and one-half to six units, and $12.50 for more than six units. An additional fee of $2 will be charged for late registration.

New students registering for the session will be required to take a series of tests, including English A, physical and personnel examinations. Personnel tests must be taken Saturday, March 13, or Friday, March 26, or Spring quarter registration will be held up.

Scientists Find Element No. 99

BERKELEY, Calif., Feb. 2 — The University of California Cyclotron has produced the seventh artificial element to be discovered in the Berkeley laboratory, the Atomic Energy commission announced yesterday.

The new element, "Number 99," is the heaviest to be added to the table of the 92 basic elements.

MYSTERY ILLNESS

SPENCER, Ind., Feb. 2 — A mysterious illness which has swept the sixth and seventh grades of Patrickburg school in Owen county had school board and health officials puzzled today.

The illness hit 26 pupils last week and six more yesterday.

TRAFFIC PROBLEMS GROW

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 2 — More than 6,000,000 Californians will hold driver's licenses by the end of this month, according to Rex Criswell, of the State Department of Motor Vehicles here.

About 40 per cent of the state's drivers are in Southern California.

Fire Suppression

A demonstration of fire suppression methods is to be held today at 10:30 a.m. at Seventh and San Antonio Sts., according to James M. Craig, assistant professor of bacteriology. The local fire department is presenting the demonstration for the Natural Science 110 class, but anyone may attend.

Group To Sponsor Rally Convention

Plans for a convention of high school and college rally committees, which will be held on campus, were discussed at a meeting of the executive board of the Rally committee at 3:30 yesterday in the Student Union.

Purpose of the convention will be to discuss student activities. Date for the conclave was set tentatively for a Saturday during the early part of Spring quarter. Letters will be sent to high school and college student body presidents and rally groups to announce the convention.

Decision as to what to do with funds obtained from the Ugly Man contest, which will be sponsored by the committee, was delayed. The Campus Chest and the Athletic Work Fund were mentioned as possible recipients of contest profits.

'Queen Phobia'

San Jose State is suffering from "queen phobia," a disease more common to county fairs, festivals and community carnivals. There are so many "queens" walking around campus today that it is hard to determine which female is royalty and which commoner.
There's Homecoming Queen, Theta Chi Dream Girl, Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, Sophomore Doll, Misses Football, Basketball, Golfball, Tennis Racquet . . . really, it's discouraging. And it looks like there's no relief in sight. The American male has allowed himself to be duped and bamboozled by the ingenuity of the American female. First thing you know there'll be a queen for every day in the year. Can you imagine it? "Miss Feb. 3, 1954."
It's not the crowning of the lovely girls and the display of a little feminine flesh that sends us to beating the editorial drums. It's the fact that there is no queen to reign supreme. We've got a school full of "princesses" and no queen. What's to happen if they should start to arguing about who is really queen? Some fun.
We heartily suggest that we have one big queen contest during the year and get rid of the minor ones. Might we suggest that the Homecoming Queen reign supreme over SJS for the whole year?

Tuxedo or Burlap?

The question of formal dress for Wintermist has been bandied about in the Thrust and Parry column for the past week, and it has come to our attention that some students actually are not going to the dance because they don't want to plunk down five bucks for a tuxedo.
While the SAC would like lots of people to show up in tuxes, you can take our word for it that about half of the people at the dance, possibly more, will turn up in dark suits. You even can count on at least five percent who will show up in light suits.
Vern Perry and SAC realize this, we believe. Far be it from them to keep anybody from going to the dance.
As to financial problems, most students are probably in class "C" (broke most of the time), and can't afford to rent a tuxedo, anyway. Besides, most of us already bear the tag "financially defunct." It is the sign of the collegian.
At Stanford they wear tuxedos at the drop of a hat. It's the sign of the elite, the sophisticate. At San Jose State we wear tuxedos once a year, and most of us not even then.
And who knows? There probably will be the 10 per cent who don't get the word and show up in burlap.

CAMPUS QUIRKS

THE SOLUTION? Don Abinante has presented to his fellow Coopites what he thinks is the solution to halt the losing streak of the Spartan basketballers.
"I think that a special player should be trained to run in and score the winning point in the close games," he stated.

BENTEL FOR PRESIDENT! Dr. Dwight Bentel, Journalism department head, arrived at the college the other morning wearing a little button on which was inscribed, "Bentel for President."

Journalism students and faculty members were agog until Dr. Bentel explained that the button was part of his son Dave's campaign for student body prexy at San Jose High. Incidentally, he won.

Interesting problems were revealed at the last meeting of the Student Council when class representatives reported on the recent four-way class council conference.
The Freshmen moaned that they didn't have enough activities to keep their class busy. The seniors wailed that they had too many activities for their members. Looks like something could be done about this.

Thrust and Parry

Editor Gets Award!

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Give the man a kewpie doll! He has guessed the answer to the big question! John Q. Student is the man who pays for all the awards. But someone missed the word on "can they be paid for?" The Court jackets are scheduled for the 1954-55 budget and so are the Rally jackets. Social Affairs hasn't received its proposed awards yet.

Why should the students pay for the awards? Because those who are to receive them in the future, like those who receive them now, work hard to make student government and student activities a success. Their grades must remain satisfactory, and their work in activities also must remain satisfactory. Above all, they receive no units for doing their work.

Every student at State is represented on the Student Council, and the Council has direct jurisdiction over the Awards committee. If John Q. doesn't feel that student government deserves an award, let him voice himself through his representative or in person. Let's not have any more of this editorial muck-raking.

Dear Thrust and Parry:

In view of the interpretation expressed by some students concerning the wearing of dark suits at Wintermist, I want to make it very clear that dark suits are perfectly acceptable garb for the dance and students so attired will be more than welcome.

Senior Pictures

Group pictures of graduating seniors who did not have individual pictures taken for inclusion in the 1954 La Torre will be taken Wednesday, Feb. 10 at 3:30 p.m. at the entrance to the Women's gymnasium.

It is important that all seniors eligible report for these pictures which have been postponed twice, according to Jim Cottrell, graduate section editor.

The average American tourist in Britain spends 20 cents of his expense dollar for railroad travel and transportation, 45 cents for hotels and food, and 15 cents for entertainment, according to British railways.

Boot Probogtioners!

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Does the school administration honestly believe that San Jose State is capable of handling even 6000 students, much less any more? Is it possible that the administration believes that a good education (and there is little sense in having one unless it is good) is possible in our present overcrowded conditions and with our comparatively small teaching staff? I hardly think that this could be the case. Thus, we face the problem of limiting the school enrollment and it must be met.

The following are a few suggestions concerning this problem which I believe are more valid than those offered in Friday's lead article.

I do not believe the major cut in future enrollment should be made in prospective freshmen students but rather in the number of students who presently are enrolled at this school.

It is intellectual suicide for this college to readmit students who are continually going on and off probation and/or who are on second probation after their freshman year.

These mentally inadequate students do nothing but fill up already over loaded classes. There are a few exceptions, such as veterans who have been away from school for several years, but probation should be granted only after a thorough study of each case.

If it is still found necessary to infringe upon the number of entering freshmen, the state college system ought to institute a series of entrance examinations given at many universities and colleges. Thus, each freshman would be judged on a uniformly objective basis as to his ability to carry out college level work.

Perhaps in using these methods, some good will come out of the enrollment limitations forced on us by necessity.

Shades of Emily..

The great hospitality that the San Jose State boxing team received last week from Cal Poly deserves mention here.

Coach Julie Menendez and his San Jose glovemen were well pleased with the goodwill and neighborliness they received in San Luis Obispo Thursday.

The relationship between the two colleges in the past few years hasn't been so friendly as might be expected. The fact that last year's Cal Poly-San Jose dual meet scheduled for Spartan gym was called off by the southern school just a few days before the date of the meet, didn't help the situation.

The Mustangs backed out of this one because they claimed they had too many injuries to their boxers, but later they went on to capture the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate title. Thus, San Jose, already having a short home schedule, was left with a shorter one.

But this year it was different. The Spartan mittmen were treated splendidly. In the finest spirit of true sportsmanship, the two boxing squads had dinner together as guests of a local San Luis Obispo restaurant. It was a nice feeling to see the two teams, who were going all out against each other in the ring only a few moments earlier, to be talking like old buddies at the dinner table.

As the San Jose squad was leaving the restaurant to depart for home, a Mustang boxer came up to this writer and said, "Give your boys a good write-up; they sure deserve it." What more can you say after a remark like that? — BOB STRIEGEL

Herm Wyatt, holder of numerous high jump records for the Spartans, added another mark for the boys to shoot at. Especially the boys in Boston.

Herm skipped over the bar at 6-ft. 9-in in the Boston Gardens Saturday night for a new city record. Wyatt performed for track mentor Bud Winter before joining Mike Ryan's forces at the Santa Clara Youth Center last spring.

Note that Chuck Adkins, greatest Spartan ringman of them all, scored win No. 8 Monday in Hammond, Ind., when he pounded out a unanimous 8-round decision over Welterweight Carl Stafford. It was the former coach's eighth pro start. There's a big chance that start No. 9 will be in the San Jose Civic early next month. Local fight promoter Babe Griffin still is trying to match Adkins with Los Angeles' Bobby Why.

A noted San Franciscan can proceed to take a bow. SJS gridders will not play Mississippi U. next season in San Jose. In fact, they won't even play 'em. The Raiders have just about tied up the deal with New Mexico University which calls for a contest here on Nov. 27.

Athletic Director Bill Hubbard said that final plans will not be made until the second semester is in progress at the southern school. —BOB SMITH.

Student: "Sorry I missed your class this morning, professor, what did you say?"

Santa Clara Administers Eighth Straight Setback

By GIL CHESTERTON

San Jose tied a record last night but it wasn't one to go around shouting and bragging about. The hapless Spartans dropped their eighth straight game tying a 21-year-old school record set in 1933, as they absorbed a 76-47 licking at the hands of league-leading Santa Clara at Civic Auditorium in the opening game of second round CBA play.

Cage Mentors Ponder Over Hawaii Entry

A plan designed to enter University of Hawaii in the CBA league, of which San Jose State is a member, was introduced by Bill Kim, former island sports writer, Monday at the weekly meeting of the Northern California basketball writers.

Walt McPherson, head cage mentor at State, greeted the plan with approval, providing a feasible financial plan could be worked out.

The Spartans made an island trek three years ago playing a trio of games. The $3500 traveling expenses were made up by gate guarantees. Coach McPherson pointed out.

"A trip to Hawaii also would serve as a selling point in drawing top notch basketball players," McPherson figured.

In announcing his plans, Kim, Monitor sports editor, stated that the Hawaiian Rainbows make an annual tour of the mainland as well as inviting several Pacific Coast teams to the island each season.

USF Coach Phil Woolpert said, "The guarantee naturally would have to cover all our trip expenses." He continued, "We don't play league games in December, the normal traveling time for Hawaii."

Le Anne Hall 24, Buzzer Hall 18; Net Nuts 35, Shooting Stars 26.

Andie Palmquist and Marilyn Kechley, co-chairmen for WAA's annual banquet, report that plans are under way for the event. The banquet, which will be held March 2, will be at Rickey's.

Seniors May Ask Nimitz To Speak

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz may be scheduled to speak at an open session of the Senior Orientation class, Bill Hushaw, president, announced at the Monday afternoon meeting of the class.

Hushaw said that Dr. William H. Vatcher, instructor in political science, has suggested that the seniors sponsor Admiral Nimitz if he can be obtained. Dr. Vatcher served as an aide to the Admiral during World War II.

Initiation Tonight

Walter T. Plant of the Psychology department, Milton B. Rendahl of the Social Science department, and Roland M. Atkinson, manager of the Spartan Shop, will be initiated as honorary members of Tau Delta Phi during ceremonies at 8 o'clock tonight in the Tower, according to Larry Gildea, publicity director for the fraternity.

Volcanic steam harnessed in plants at Larderello, Italy, furnishes almost one-tenth of the nation's total electric power.

Library Displays Literary Collection

An exhibit, comprised of Books of Hours, 15th century antiphonals and illuminations, now is being shown in the library showcase.

Students enrolled in the history of books and libraries class set up the exhibit, according to Miss Dora Smith, instructor in the class.

Included in the exhibit are leaves from the 15th century antiphonals and examples of four-line staff nailhead rotations. A palimpsest, loaned by Miss Dora Smith, is also in the display.

Student Y To Hold Election Tonight

Members of the Student Y are urged to be present at their 7:30 o'clock meeting tonight at the "Y" for the opening of polls for elections, Jim Martin, executive secretary for the Student Y, said.

At 8 o'clock Dr. Richard Tansey is scheduled to speak on "Christian Art."

Polls will re-open tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock and will close at 5 o'clock that evening, Martin announced.

To Visit Libraries

Miss Dora Smith, head of the Librarianship department, along with Mrs. Jeannette E. N. Vander Ploeg and Mrs. Marjorie Limbocker of that department, will travel to Stockton Friday afternoon to visit school libraries, it was announced yesterday.

Staff Adviser Predicts Next Lyke One of Best Editions Yet

"Winter quarter Lyke staff is loaded with talent," Mrs. Dolores Spurgeon, adviser to the magazine, said yesterday in predicting that the winter quarter edition should be one of the best.

Co-editors Duane Fiorini and Hubert Vargas head the list of celebrities. Fiorini was co-editor of Lyke also during the fall quarter and Vargas is art editor of the 1954 La Torre.

Cited as proof that this term's staff is one of the most talented in the history of the feature magazine are Joe Bryan, fall quarter editor of Spartan Daily; Carole Simmons and Dick Zimmerman, co-editors of the 1953 La Torre; Roger Flanagan, co-editor of the 1954 La Torre; John Aitken, ASB president and former business manager of Lyke; and Jim Bernardi, Spartan Revelries director.

John Landicho, fall quarter advertising manager, and Bob Marshall, fall quarter business manager, are filling the same positions this quarter.

Stan Wachols, Wendell Davenport, and Juanie Green, commercial art majors and veterans of several quarters on the Lyke art and makeup staff, are serving again this quarter.

Sulfur Film Topic

"Sulfur" is to be the film featured at tomorrow's Science Movie Hour to be held in Room S210 at 3:30 p.m., according to James Craig, bacteriology professor.

The film depicts the processing of sulfur from mining to the final resultant material.
